

Berikbol Aitkozhevich Kartpaev, chief analyst of the Department of international comparative studies of the JSC "Informational and analytic center".

He graduated from Arkalyk pedagogical Institute, physico-mathematical faculty, speciality - Physics.

Organizes international studies in educational sphere (TIMSS, PISA, PIRLS).

Previously worked as a physics teacher and school principal, headed the teaching-educational work.

Participated in national training seminars on technology and international research, where he presented reports. He is one of the authors of the National report "Results of the international study TIMSS-2011 and "Main results of the international study PISA-2012. Conducting an internal analysis of the results of students in TIMSS and PISA. He has published articles in journals.

Areas of research interest: monitoring and analysis of the development of the system of secondary education, the reform of the education system, the organization of international comparative studies in education (TIMSS, PISA, PIRLS).

Field of activity:

- International comparative researches [1]

Links

[1] <http://iac.kz/en/experts/mezhdunarodnye-sopostav>