

Published on Информационно-Аналитический центр (<http://iac.kz>)

Home > Dilara Tashibaeva

Tashibayeva Dilyara Nurlanovna, M.S., Deputy Director of the Department for International Comparative Studies of JSC "Information-Analytic Center".

She gained master's degree in Management in education, Nazarbayev University. Theme of master's thesis: "Skills of an effective teacher as viewed by students and teachers: role of knowledge on taught subject, pedagogic skills and emotional intelligence". She graduated from Suleyman Demirel University, Philology Department.

In 2014 she completed in-service training courses on "Monitoring and evaluation in education" held in London (Great Britain) and "Advanced course on monitoring and evaluation" held in Washington (USA).

She participated in the project on development of English skills at orphaned children in Izmit, Turkey. She has experience of teaching English in educational centers. She has been a coordinator of the marketing project in ATF Bank and in 2014 an organizer of "ASEEES-CESS Joint Regional Conference".

Took part in work on such "IAC" JSC projects as "Monitoring and evaluation of educational reforms", "Preparation and edition of the National report on the state and development of the education system of the RK", "Evaluation of parents' impact on the formation of functional literacy of school children" and etc.

Areas of research interest: monitoring and evaluation of the secondary education development system; holding social research in secondary education.

Field of activity:

- Secondary education [1]
-

Links

[1] <http://iac.kz/en/experts/srednee-obrazovanie>