Charity and aid to surrounding people helps each of us not to lose faith in good and bright, not to lose our humanity. Sometimes a timely given helping hand can play a decisive role in the human's life.

Being aware of the importance of any type of support, the staff members of Information Analytic Center Joint Stock Company were actively involved in the campaign, organized by the Center of Social Care "Komek-help". On November 18, 2015, each staff member tried to do what one can in order to help orphans, disabled people, older adults, needy families, Adaptation Centers, foster homes and crisis centers.

But help isn't all direct participant. We can help by our examples, deed, specific results! We believe that every good deed harmonizes and exercises a salutary influence over all people.
