

The main objectives of the Department:

The objectives of the Department are:

Participation in implementation of the Ministry IT policy.

Participation in creation of IT systems promoting the activity arrangement in the Ministry.

Development and implementation of Information technologies in all activities of the Company in mutual collaboration with other subdivisions of the Company.

Technical support of the hardware and software of the Company.

Informational, analytical and organizational support of the Company activity on issues referred to the Department's competency.

---