[1]

For the second year IAC JSC is helping the family to prepare their youngest son Abdrazak Tokbolat for school, who is Grade 3 student of school No64 in Astana. This support was organized in the framework of "Road to school" campaign. Abdrazakov's is a family with lots of children.

As the boy's mother asked the Centre bought the school and sports suits, white shirts, T-shirts. The Center bought quality clothes for the boy of his sizes.

Also the boy was given an orthopedic pack with additional bag for sport shoes. Taking into account the wishes of his mother and him the complete package of studying and writing instruments and stationary was bought.

Center staff had a conversation with the father about his son's health, mood and attitude to learning, shared a number of useful recommendations to strengthen children's immune system, promote healthy lifestyles and education stress.

Parents and Tokbolat himself expressed gratitude to the Center employees for paying attention.
